GOVERNMENT TO INTERVENE IN RAIL STRIKE

Attorney General Palmer Returns From Georgia and at Once Begins Study of Reports of Railroad Crisis on Which to Base Policy of Federal Authorities.

MAY SEEK INJUNCTION OR ORDERL CRIMINAL ACTION

Washington, April 10.—(Special.)—The government is watching the railroad strike and will act if necessary, it was officially announced at the white house today. It was stated that at present the situation is in the hands of Attorney General Palmer, and he is expected to consult the president before taking any drastic action.

Washington, April 12.—(Special.)—The government today was preparing to move against the nation-wide railroad strike.

Attorney General Palmer, returning from a campaign trip through Georgia, was to take up the reins and direct the government activities to safeguard the transportation of the nation. The attorney general was expected at the white house to secure the viewpoint of the president as to the course to be followed.

Attorney General Palmer arrived at his office shortly before 10 o'clock and called for all reports bearing on the railroad strike. He then went into conference with Judge C. B. Ames, assistant attorney general who has been in charge of the strike situation.

Senator Cummins, chairman of the interstate commerce commission of the senate and W. N. Doak, vice president of the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen, called at the white house early and conferred with Secretary Tumulty.

Strong pressure was being brought to bear upon the president for immediate action to quell the strike. Business men and political leaders wired from many cities that food supplies are being threatened.

Two courses are open to the attorney general. One calls for injunction proceedings under the Lever law and the other calls for criminal action against the strikers for interferring with interstate commerce. Officials admitted today that the situation is difficult because the strike is unauthorized and is apparently backed by no organization with central control.

Chicago, April 12.—(Special)—Beginning of federal action to end the nationwide switchmen's strike, the declaration of the railroad unions affiliated with the American federation of labor for or against the strike, and the presentation in Chicago of the strikers' demands were three important developments of the walkout expected today. Both strikers and railroad heads eagerly look forward with some statement from Washington presumably to come from Attorney General Palmer, setting forth the government position in the strike. It was freely predicted in some quarters that drastic action would be threatened following Saturday's ultimatium, giving the strikers 48 hours to end the walkout.

STANTON NOMINATED FOR HEAD OF TEACHERS ASSOCIATION

Youngstown, April 12.—Democracy in school administration and incorporation in the educational system of the benefits and lessons growing out of the war marked the spring meeting of the Northeastern Ohio Teachers' association held in Youngstown Friday evening and Saturday.

The convention adopted a plan to nominate and elect officers in a way to give every member more of a voice in the proceedings. Nominations can be made at the spring meeting meeting or by petition signed by 50 members and filed before September 20. Voting is to be by ballot at the fall meeting in Cleveland.

Under the new system, nominations were made at the meeting Saturday as follows: B. F. Stanton, of Alliance, for president; J. A. McDowell, of Ashland, for vice president; S. D. Shankland, of Willoughby, for treasurer and executive secretary, and Miss Anne Thomas, of Youngstown, for secretary.

PREDICTS GREATEST TRADE EOOM IN HISTORY

London, April 12.—(Special.)—"The world is six years behind in point of production and therefore one of the greatest trade booms in history lies before us," is the declaration of Colonel Cumming, president of the John B. Stetson company, now visiting England.

"The United States especially is crying out for British goods, and there can be little fear of overproduction for many years to come.

"At the same time the great financial authorities of America are taking a long and cautious view of the situation. Because trade is so good and money so plentiful, they do not want an era of wild speculation to begin. For this reason they have no intention of extending credit, except on the most conservative basis.

"Americans feel that, considering the extraordinary sacrifices made by Great Britain in the war, her financial position is wonderful, and that once her war nerves are forgotten, she will speedily resume her old position."

Frank Klepheart, William Crowle and E. Anderson left Sunday for Los Angeles, Calif. Mr. Klepheart will remain for some time in order to regain his health.

RAILROAD STRIKE AFFECTS LOCAL TRAFFIC CONDITIONS

H. D. Kerr, of the local Pennsylvania freight office, announced Monday morning that no freight orders were being accepted, there being an embargo both east and west on account of the strike.

H. P. Andrews, local ticket agent, stated this morning that Sunday evening he had been instructed to sell all tickets subject to delay. This morning he received word not to reserve any parlor car or sleeper space to New York city.

The trains were running late Sunday night, but Monday they were running about as usual

The result of tht railroad strike has begun to be felt here ,as there are practically no activities in the Salem yards, it was stated this afternoon.

That the food situation here may become serious in the event traffic is held up for several days is the belief of some of the merchants, especially the meat dealers who receive shipments over the railroads. It is understood that most of the meat shops have enough to last probably from two to four days, and that after that if the situation is not improved there likely will be a big shortage of meats here.

CLAIM STRIKE IS BROKEN AT CHICAGO

Chicago, April 12.—(Special.)—The backbone of the switchmen's strike in Chicago has been broken, it was asserted definitely today by C. B. Greer, vice preident of the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul railroad, where the trouble started. The St. Paul road lifted its embargo today. Other railroad heads joined with Mr. Greer in his assertion. They regard the Chicago break as the beginning of the end throughout the country.

"We expect to have freight traffic restored to nearly 100 per cent of normal by night,' 'said Mr. Greer.

At the Chicago stockyards live stock receipts showed a decided gain and killing was resumed by the packers.

STRIKE OUTLOOK AT NEW YORK GLOOMY

New York, April 12.—(Special.)—Railway officials, with the freight and passenger schedules of their roads badly disrupted and the strike movement among their employes apparently growing, saw litle that was encouraging in the railway strike situation here today. The belief prevailed, however, that the strike movement is approaching its climax and that its success or failure will be recorded soon.

Only one railroad entering New York is maintaining normal passenger service. The New York Central road was reported to be running all of its passenger trains, although its freight service is badly crippled. On all other lines service was more or less in a chaotic state.

There are 42 lots to the plot, which replaces the old Trimble addition. It was stated that chicken coops, brush heaps ad alley ways had been established over the old plot, all of which will be removed

The paper work o nthe plan of lots is being done at the city engineer's office an destimates are being made on the extension of water mains and piping and sewerage.

Rail Men To Take Action

Convention of Railroad Craftsmen at Kansas City is Battleground Between Radicals and Conservatives.

Kansas City, Mo., April 12.—(Special.)—Whatever action is taken by the convention of the raiway employes department of the American Federation of Labor, which opened here at 10 o'clock this morning, will go a long way toward determining the outcome of the swiftly spreading switchmen's strike.

It is expected to be decided during the conference here whether the strike will spread into other departments and crafts. This will depend entirely upon the influence the radical element is able to exert during the series of meetings. Already the high officials of the Switchmen's Union of North America, the Brotherhood of Railway Clerks and the six shop craft unions have come out strongly against the "outlaws' 'and are urging the 700,000 members of their organizations to ignore the blandishments of the "rebels." Whether they will be able to hold the men in line was the main topic under consideration as the 600 delegates gathered here today.

G.A.R. Asks Public Suggestions For Memorial Day

Editor Daily News—At the regular meeting of Trescott post, G. A. R., held Saturday, the approaching Memorial day occasion was discussed by the largest attendance we have had for a long time, and it developed that a diversity of opinion existed as to whether we should plan for an old-time public program, involving considerable expense, or confine the occasion to a quiet, inexpensive one, by marching with the children to the cemetery and decorating the graves of our comrades in a modest way.

Those who favored the latter plan, argued that it was an unauspicious time to solicit contributions of money, and none of the old veterans would volunteer to perform that unpleasant task.

It was finally decided to ask the general public to solve the problem, and accordingly, the adjutant was instructed to prepare a message for The News, setting forth the facts above stated, and request a speedy expression of public feeling regarding Memorial day this year.

It was thought that by so doing the Chamber of Commerce, as a representative body of business men, manufacturers, etc., would probably take the matter up and offer suggestions, and that fraternal orders and private citizens generally would do the same.

All communications concerning the matter, either written or oral, should be addressed to John F. Tescher, chairman; Henry Older, Q. M., or the undersigned.

Hoping for unity and fraternal cooperation, we are sincerely,

CHARLES BONSALL,
Adjutant.

NATIONAL HUMANE WEEK

This is National Humane Week and is so being observed everywhere throughout the country. Here in Salem the local Humane Society is joining in this observance and is calling on all the people of this city to give the subject of humane work serious thought during this special campaign of education. What of the future of this good cause? What is it to be? Unquestionably better than the past. The world is not on the down grade. Judge its progress not by years, but by ages. Many a wave of an incoming tide would seem to mark a tide that ebbs. It takes many waves to tell the story.

How shall this better future be hastened for men and nations? Nothing has in it for this end such hope and promise as humane education. Once let all our schools and colleges be open to the daily teaching of the principles of justice, fair play, good will and kindness, as the supreme factors in determining the relations between nation and nation, between man and man, and between man and all the creatures below him, and our civilization would mount at once to a higher level. Wars would soon be only relics of a barbarous age, the bitter controversies between capital and labor would give place to co-operation and the recognition of a common kinship, strikes and lockouts and deeds of violence and destruction would cease, race prejudices would die, the dream of seer and prophet would be no longer scoffed at, and the kingdoms of this world would become the kingdoms of truth and love, as some day they must.

All honor to science and philosophy and art, and whatever is useful to mankind that our schools and colleges teach. But these are not half so basic, so fundamental in developing character and shaping the future of the world, as the elemental things that lie enfolded in these two words, Humane Education. The former things, taught never so well, do not and cannot reach the deepest springs of action.

Some day all our educators will realize this to a far greater degree than at present. Then the work of such organizations as the American Humane Education Society will be recognized as striking at the very root of evil and founded in the highest wisdom. Already more than four million children reached in their educational life by such organizations as this, stand for a service rendered humanity which is beyond computation. The man who has a thousand dollars, a million dollars, to give for the welfare of the world, can accomplish most effective results with his gift if in some way he will put it where it can aid in humanizing the education of growing generations which are to help build a new and better world in days to come.

RESPECT FOR THE FLAG

Respect for the National Anthem is on a par with respect for the Flag. Much comment has been caused throughtout the city in the last few days by the fact that at the band concert last Friday evening, when at the close of the program the "Star Spangled Banner" was played, a considerable number of persons instead of standing at attention respectfully during the playing of this national air as they should have done, started to leave the house, making not a little noise as they went. The severest criticism is due such an action, and it ought to receive such a popular rebuke as will make sure it does not again occur in this city. The affair Friday night was a shameful exhibition of lack of patriotic courtesy, deserving of severest condemnation.

The fact that New York sends an uninstructed delegation to the Republican National Convention has a very favorable bearing on the candidacy of Senator Harding.

SELF-HELP IN POLITICS

Every man and every woman who are trying to make ends meet in these trying times have a direct personal interest in the choice of president. The president is not omnipotent, but he has more actual power than any other man on earth. It makes a great difference to everybody what sort of man he is. Prices will be high and taxes will be burdensome for some years at best; we must not expect too much from a change in administration at Washington but we justly may expect something, a great deal in fact, if we ourselves show a little sense and judgment and independence at this crucial time.

The Lord helps those who help themselves, they say, and it is true. If we are so blinded by prejudice, so addicted to partisanship, so fooled by specious, old-fashioned, disproved and discredited political arguments that we nominate and elect an old-time, reactionary, property-above-man president with no adequate grasp of the situation which this country must face and grapple within the next four years, we shall get the worst of it and we shall deserve no sympathy, though we shall need it sorely. If, on the other hand, enough of us have sense enough, interest enough in our own best interests to forget our fossilized prejudices and look for the man who has the ability and the singleness of purpose to meet the situation courageously and with no motive save to serve the public, we are almost sure to find him and to make things easier for ourselves as time goes on. Politics is a queer game and the strangest thing about it is the way otherwise intelligent men so often will permit their preudices to stand in their own light at a primary or an election.—Ohio State Journal.

How Diphtheria is Contracted

One often hears the expression, "My child caught a severe cold which developed into diphtheria," when the truth was that the cold had simply left the little one particularly susceptible to the wandering diphtheria germ. If your child has a cold when diphtheria is prevalent you should take him out of school and keep him off the street until fully recovered, as there is a hundred times more danger of his taking diphtheria when he has a cold. When Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is given it quickly cures the cold and lessens the danger of diphtheria or any other germ disease being contracted. Obtainable everywhere.

MISS HOLLOWAY'S TESTIMONY

I came here four years ago, after spending several months in the Youngstown City hospital. I left that hospital, not because I had anything against it, but because of a serious illness which left me physically unable to continue my duties. After spending several months at home recuperating, I again wished to continue my training. I talked the matter over with Dr. Bookwalter of Columbiana, and his advise was, that I finish my training in the Salem hospital. I did this and never once have I regretted it.

During my training, I spent 174 nights on night duty — 100 of these were on first or ward floor, 74 on private room floor.

My second year term or night duty, a graduate nurse, by the name of Miss Hollingsworth, was the night superintendent whom Miss Steer spoke about at the first meeting. When Miss Hollingsworth first came to this institution, she did very good work as a nurse, but a little later she became careless, neglecting to answer her signals promptly. The night signal was put down from second to first floor and in this way, I could see the lights from either floor. One night I observed her light being on quite a while, thought perhaps she was very busy and I might be of some assistance. Upon reaching second floor I found her asleep.

It seemed a little out of place for me to speak to a graduate nurse and my thics may have been at fault, however I gave her to understand if the offense happened the second time and Miss Hollingsworth was replaced just as soon as Miss Templeton could secure some one to take her place.

During my duty of night superintendent, several of these instances of which Miss Maher spoke of took place. During the case of Mrs. Snyder in room 20, she requested me to assist her in moving her patient up in bed, while doing so she endeavored to hold the hypodermoclysis apparatus in place and accidently pulled the needle out and disconnected the tube from the needle.

Her plea was that of a defective needle which had been allowed to rust. The saline solution which was being given was allowed to flow out in the bed, thus necessitating a change of the bed linen and causing unnecessary movement of the patient.

GRAND RELIEF FROM CATARRH.

Mr. McClure says every one can get it just like he did. Three bottles of Dreco fixed him up fine.

Also took the ache out of his rheumatism and banished a severe case of constipation.

"I've found out from my own experience that it is foolish for people to be annoyed any longer by catarrh," said Mr. Charles F. McClure, of 2536 Mt. Pleasant Pike, Hamilton, O.

"I know what it is to hawk and spit and try to clear your nose, throat and head for a couple of hours every morning. I know what it is to have a constant dripping into my throat that keeps me constantly trying to clear it out. I also know what heavy breathing and unsound sleep catarrh causes, and the head noises too.

"But I also know after trying lots of remedies, what will go right to the seat of the trouble and overcome these annoying symptoms Dreco will do it. Dreco did it for me, and it's foolish for people to suffer like this when this grand medicine is within the reach of everyone.

"Dreco also eased a bad case of aching rheumatic joints; got my bowels to acting regular every day, whereas, before I used to be severely constipated. This is great medicine and I strongly advise sufferers to give it a trial."

The only way to get rid of catarrh is through the blood. Dreco is taken up by the blood very quickly; carried to the weakened membranes and restores them to healthy condition. That's the secret of Dreco's power over catarrh.

All good druggists sell Dreco and it is highly recommended in this city by J. H. Lease Drug Co. and Flodding's Drug Store.

It is The Coloring Matter of Pure Blood That Makes a Good Complexion

Beauty is more than skin deep. No one can have a clear, delicate skin, glowing with health, if the blood is impure or lacking in the vitally necessary iron that gives the coloring matter to the "life fluid." Neglect of regular and necessary waste elimination, helps to render the blood impure and reduce its iron contents. The best cosmetic in the world is pure, healthy iron-rich blood.

Doctors, realizing the importance of enriching and improving the blood, have for years prescribed Gude's Pepto-Mangan, the pleasant and proved blood builder and tonic.

Pepto-Mangan contains just the elements needed to change thin, watery blood to good, red blood. Pepto-Mangan builds rich, red blood, enabling it to carry strength and vigor to every part of the body.

Gude's Pepto-Mangan has become so well known, by reason of doctors recommending it, that you can get it in tablet or liquid form at any drug store. Instead of trying to cover up a poor complexion, get a bottle of Gude's Pepto-Mangan and note how soon you feel better, sleep better, work harder, play with more zest—and how your skin and complexion are improving.

Only make sure to get the genuine. It has "Gude's" on the package.—Advt.

—Yes, indeed, windows do a lot of talking about every home—not the wooden cases, of course, but the draperies that your neighbors look at every day and which are seen by the people who pass by.

AKRON, OHIO, MAN GAINED 18 POUNDS

"There's Nothing Like Tanlac" Declares Clarence Hall—Suffered Six Years

"I count myself lucky that I got Tanlac, for since I began taking it I have gotten rid of a case of indigestion that had followed me for six years and have gained eighteen pounds in weight besides," was the statement made a few days ago by Clarence E. Hall, a well known employe of the Goodrich Rubber company, living at 951 Bowery street, Akron, Ohio.

"For years," said Mr. Hall in explaining his case, "I could not eat any breakfast, and if I ate any supper I would just fidget about all night in such misery that I could hardly get any sleep. After meals the worst kind of pains would start up in my stomach, and then get into my chest and around my heart, almost cutting off my breath. Sometimes my heart would beat and palpitate at such a fearful rate as to make me think I had heart trouble.

"But stomach trouble is not the only thing Tanlac has relieved me of,, for I had rheumatism in my legs that hurt like a bad toothache. I could not stoop over and straighten up without just suffering agony, but since taking Tanlac I never feel a rheumatic pain. I used to get so nauseated that I could hardly retain anything I would eat and I lost weight and strength continually I was troubled with dizziness so bad that at times my head seemed to be spinning around like a top, and I was so week and tired all the time that I never felt like doing a lick of work.

"During the past two years I have been under treatment several times and tried numbers of different medicines, but never found anything to help me until a friend of mine who had taken Tanlac persuaded me to try that medicine, and then I commenced to straighten right up. All signs of stomach trouble and rheumatism soon left me and I enjoyed fine health until about a year later, when I was taken down with typhoid fever. This spell, of course, left me in a weakened condition and with occasional touches of indigestion. So I began taking Tanlac again, knowing so well what it would do, and in a few weeks time I was on my feet in good shape. My appetite was never better than it is now and I am eating three rousing meals a day without the least trouble with my stomach. I sleep like a school boy for ten or eleven hours a night and that tired feeling has left me entirely. In fact, I have never felt better than I do now and if I ever need medicine again I shall certainly take Tanlac. There's nothing like it."

Tanlac is sold in Salem by Bolger & French's'

Country of Little Change.

Recently when Professor Williams visited the vice regent of South Morocco, the latter quoted from a charter given by the sultan of Morocco in 1026. The visitor expressed surprise that this ancient parchment still remained in the vault, and the vice regent exclaimed: "Why not? We have never moved!" This incident is said not to be at all remarkable. Wherever one goes in the Turkish empire, he is likely to be confronted with the evidence of age by the traditions handed down from generation to generation. It is no more strange for a Turk to speak of happenings in his family of centuries ago than it is for an old man in this country to recall with pride the exploits of his father or grandfather.

Railroad Aids Americanization

The Pennsylvania Railway company is systematically running all its employes of foreign birth into court and having them take out naturalization papers. This is done, it is said, so as to get the men interested in American ways and institutions, so that they will be more likely to remain in the country. The company has an agent whose only duty is to look after the naturalization of employes. Friday a party of 16 Pennsylvania workmen took out first papers at the clerk's office.

All Right.

The fourth grade teacher was teaching the children the meaning of several new words, among them being the word "naturalist." She had spoken of John Burroughs and several of our best known nature lovers and then decided to test the children to see whether they thoroughly understood the word. She turned to little Newell. Use the ward 'naturalist' in a sentence," she told him.

For a minute the little fellow was perplexed and then came a bright thought which brought relief to his face. He said: "That was the naturalist picture we have of my grandfather."

Evenly Matched.

"Are they well matched?"

"Well, she's his second wife, but he's her second husband, so neither has any talking advantage over the other.",

Regular Habits Produce a Beautfiul Complexion
Daily elimination rids the system of poisons. Women should realize that!
MANY women complain daily of their complexion, of their headaches and general ill health, little realizing that the trouble is constipation. Women, too, are much more subject to such congestion than men, and much more careless of it. The result is seen in lusterless, weary eyes, in sallow, pimply complexion, in lassitude, bad breath, and in that word so often used, "indisposed."
At the first sign of these symptoms the wise woman will take a laxative, and will see that the young girl and others in her care do likewise. Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is the favorite with thousands of women because it is mild and gentle in its action and in the end trains the stomach and bowel muscles to do their work naturally without the aid of medicine.
This combination of simple laxative herbs with pepsin, which can be bought at any drug store, is also a very sterling first-aid in colds, fevers and other sudden ills that make it advisable to always have a bottle in the home. It is free from narcotics and safe for the tiniest baby.
In spite of the fact that Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is the largest selling liquid laxative in the world, there being over 6 million bottles sold each year, many who need its benefits have not yet used it. If you have not, send your name and address for a free trial bottle to Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 511 Washington St., Monticello, Illinois.

The Cold That Hangs On
This is No. 5 of a series of advertisements, prepared by a competent physician, explaining how certain diseases which attack the air passages—such as Pneumonia, Influenza, Whooping Cough, Measles or even a long continued Cold—often leave these organs in an inflamed, congested state, thus affording a favorable foothold for invading germs. And how Vick's VapoRub may be of value in this condition.
A cold is simply an inflammation of some part of the air passages—throat, larynx or bronchial tubes—just like a sore is an inflammation of the skin. A long continued cold means constant inflammation and this constant inflammation frequently weakens the air passages so that they become an easy point of attack for invading germs of more serious diseases. A "cold that hangs on," therefore, is simply nature's "red flag" indicating that there is "trouble below," and this warning should never be neglected.
Nightly applications of Vick's VapoRub will aid nature to clear up that inflammation. Because Vicks acts locally by stimulation thru the skin to draw out the inflammation, attract the blood away from the congested spots and relieve the cough. In addition, the medicinal ingredients of Vicks are vaporized by the body heat. These vapors are breathed in all night long, thus bringing the medication to bear directly upon the inflamed areas.
Vicks should be rubbed in over the throat and chest until the skin is red—then spread on thickly and covered with hot flannel cloths. Leave the clothing loose around the neck and the bed clothes arranged in the form of a funnel so the vapors arising may be freely inhaled. If the cough is annoying, swallow a small bit of Vicks the size of a pea.
Samples to new users will be sent free on request to The Vick Chemical Company, 235 Broad Street, Greensboro, N. C.

This treatment was started by Miss Hopkins, early in the evening when Miss Templeton was on duty, then why, if the needle was defective, did not she speak of it in place of leaving such an apparatus? The following morning when Miss Maher asked for more saline solution I myself, went to the surgery and brought the flask of saline to the floor where I heated it already for use. Yet, she says the treatment had to be discontinued that morning because of lack of saline. Now does that seem possible? Further more she stated that it was discontinued at 6 o'clock. She has it charted in black and white "discontinued at 8 o'clock." Several times during my duty, have I had to call Miss Maher from her peaceful slumber to answer her patient's light. You might think this impossible after her statement the other night, but nevertheless it is only too true. Even Miss Ellison entrusted herself to the care of this nurse whom I had to awaken when her signal was put on. Miss Maher evidently did not have the love for her sister nurse when she was taking care of her, that she does now, or she wouldn't have made the slurring statements about her that she did.

Several times during this night duty I had to call the fireman to attend the furnace, but as soon as this was reported to our superintendent, Miss Templeton, extra blankets were provided and the patients were kept warm. Probably some of the graduate nurses were not as warm as they might have been, but they could get plenty of blankets the same as I did if they had tried.

Do you, the people of Salem realize what you are doing to the nurses of the Salem hospital. Do you realize you are trying to destroy the dream and love which we have for our beautiful training? Do you realize we love and honor our most capable superintendent, who has been like a mother to us all. Why do we love her? Because we have lived with her for three or four years and have compared her with other superintendents. We know her better than anyone else in the world, and we will always love and honor her.

You can not destroy our regard for her in the minds of those of us who know her best, and may God forgive those who are condemning her, for they know not what they do.

MISS THOMAS'S TESTIMONY

About a year and a half ago during the period of a scarcity of nurses I applied for admission at the Salem hospital to finish my course of training which I was forced to give up at the time on account of ill health. On being accepted here I was told by one of the graduates who now has her name on the list of those making a suggestion of charges against the hospital, that the training school is very good and is also a registered institution. My training is all that I expected and I have not regretted coming.

One of the charges preferred by a graduate is improper food and scrapple served on a special diet. The scrapple charge was my mistake and was soon made known to me by the floor nurse and later by Miss Templeton, and the proper diet supplied.

We are taught from the time we enter training that no difference should be made in the treatment of any of the patients, whether they are charity or otherwise. I recall one instance while in the surgery as a student nurse, I was scrubbing for an operation and was

Ruddy Cheeks—Sparkling Eyes—Most Women Can Have

Says Dr. Edwards, a Well-Known Ohio Physician

Dr. F. M. Edwards for 17 years treated scores of women for liver and bowel ailments. During these years he gave to his patients a prescription made of a few well-known vegetable ingredients mixed with olive oil, naming them Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets. You will know them by their olive color.

These tablets are wonder-workers on the liver and bowels, which cause a normal action, carrying off the waste and poisonous matter in one's system.

If you have a pale face, sallow look, dull eyes, pimples, coated tongue, headaches, a listless, no-good feeling, all out of sorts, inactive bowels, you take one of Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets nightly for a time and note the pleasing results.

Thousands of women and men take Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets—the successful substitute for calomel—now and then just to keep them fit. 10c and 25c.

YOUNG GIRLS MADE STRONG

Mrs. Boyd Tells How Her Daughter Benefited by Taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Danville, Ill.—"My daughter was very delicate and we thought we could not raise her. She was troubled with irregularity and she was not able to go to school. For a year we gave her all kinds of tonics but to no good. One day one of your little books was thrown on our porch and I saw what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound had done for others and what it might do for her. Now she is getting fat and goes to school every day. You can tell every mother what the Vegetable Compound has done for my daughter."—Mrs. J. H. BOYD, 1002 N. Jackson St., Danville, Ill.

If every girl who suffers as Miss Boyd did, or from irregularities, painful periods, backache, sideache, dragging down pains, inflammation or ulceration would only give this famous root and herb remedy a trial they would soon find relief from such suffering.

For special advice women are asked to write the Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass. The result of forty years experience is at your service.

told by the surgeon, Dr. Yaggi, that unless he could have a graduate nurse scrub he would not perform the operation. The surgery supervisor who had gone down for the patient and was waiting with her at the elevator was called back. The surgery supervisor scrubbed and I acted as second nurse during the operation.

Before going off duty the night before, I was told by Miss Templeton, to see that everything was ready for the morning and to put the cautery together and test it. The cautery was in perfect condition as it was in the morning again on being tested by both the surgery supervisor and myself. On entering the surgery and seeing the cautery in readiness (as it was always used by Dr. Yaggi in these cases) Dr. Yaggi requested most emphatic to have it taken out of his sight as he never wanted to see it again. After the operation, while I was cleaning up, Dr. Yaggi came to me and said that he did not want me to feel that he had any fault to find with my previous work, but that in this case he must have more experienced assistance.

DR. HECK'S TESTIMONY

Since the opening of the Salem hospital I have been in the institution nearly every day. I am there most of the forenoon, often until evening and occasionally at night. My duties have taken me into every department and I have only words of commendation for the efficient, careful and orderly manner in which Miss Templeton has conducted the institution.

I am often in the surgery, and the cool, skilful conduct of the nurses in charge is remarkable, especially is this noticeable when you remember the many surgeons who operate there, each likely to conduct a given operation in a different manner. When the hospital equipment was being purchased I was a member of the committee to select instruments for the surgery, and it was decided to purchase only instruments in general use in emergencies and ordinary surgical operations. I have more than once heard Miss Templeton tell the operating room nurses to discard any instruments found defective.

I have recommended this hospital to my friends. I have taken my patients there, yes, near relatives and a member of my own family, and in all my connection with the Salem hospital I have never found such conditions to exist therein as have been alleged by these complainants. I take pride in the efficiency and equipment of this hospital. Its success is a matter of vital importance to me.

Since the present controversy has arisen I have inquired of physicians from neighboring towns, who bring their patients to this hospital, and who are familiar with conditions therein, what they thought of its management. In no instance have I met with adverse criticism and most of them have much to say in praise of Miss Templeton. I assume responsibility for the conduct of the X-Ray department.

TRACE MEXICAN RACE TO CHINA

Recent Discoveries Bear Out Tradition That Chinese Once Peopled Country.

MAY SOLVE ANCIENT PUZZLE

Hieroglyphics Found on Foundation Stones of Pyramids at San Juan Teotihuacan Indicate Primitive Migration From Orient.

Mexico City.—Hieroglyphics recently discovered on the foundation stones of the pyramids of San Juan Teotihuacan, 27 miles northeast of Mexico City, may solve the problem which has perplexed historians and archeologists for centuries as to the true origin of the Mexican nation. These strange carvings are said by some authorities to be Chinese, thus tending to bear out the old tradition that in the dim past wandering tribes from China crossed to the new continent, settled within the present boundaries of Mexico and became the progenitors of the race which now dominates this republic.

So interesting are the recent discoveries that the bureau of anthropology has been instructed to conduct a vigorous research, and in this connection Fong Tsiang Kuang, charge d'affaires of the Chinese legation in Mexico, visited the pyramids and stated that the hieroglyphics were similar in many respects to certain symbols now in use by the Chinese. He declared the words "sun," "city" and "eye" were clearly depicted. Mexican anthropologists who have interested themselves in the discovery have declined to pass final judgment until further excavations are made and more evidence obtained.

Pyramids Primitive Marks.

The pyramids of San Juan Teotihuacan as well as those in Cholula, in the state of Puebla, are among the oldest marks of primitive habitation to be found in the republic. They stand as colossal monuments to peoples whose history was as obscure to the conquering Spaniards in the sixteenth century as to present-day historians. Because of their general construction, some authorities believe they are the handiwork of the Egyptians, who in some mysterious manner crossed the seas and denoted their places of permanent habitation with these stone and cement structures, which are even larger than the most famous pyramids of Egypt.

The little village of San Juan Teotihuacan, which in the Aztec language means "City of the Gods," was in the early days of Aztec history the scene of extraordinary religious ceremonies. The two pyramids, one dedicated to the sun, the other to the moon, are known to have been the tombs in which hundreds of tribal dignitaries were buried, and excavators have exhumed wrought stone containing human bones, obsidian knives, terra-cotta heads with broad faces and flat noses, fragments of rare pottery and great numbers of arrowheads.

Find Mask of Monarch.

One of the most recent and most valuable discoveries was a jadeite mask of some past monarch with the brow covered with the diadem known to early Mexican history. The pyramid to the sun measures 761 by 721 feet at the base and is 216 feet high; the one to the moon is 511 by 426 feet at the base and is 151 feet high. They both contain numerous chambers, and their several stories are complete temples in themselves, but connected by winding stairs.

The inscriptions having Chinese characteristics were discovered through excavating in the ruins of what has generally been known as La Claudadela (The Citadel), but which, according to recent reports of investigators, are what is left of a pyramid larger and perhaps older than the two pyramids of the sun and the moon.
